YOU CAN JUDGE A LIBRARY BY ITS OPENING or. . .Worth Its Wait in Books

By Bruce Carroll

Years of struggle and anticipation turned to smiles and appreciation as our new library opened to rave reviews on April 8. Working to dispel the old notion... "you can't fight city hall"...Councilman John Ferraro thanked the "community for the pushing and prodding that got this done." His sentiments were echoed by Library Commission President Lucy McCoy who expressed, "the biggest thank you" for this community. And she pointed out, "this library is here today because of your dedication."
